

Product Range P

RockTron Product Ranges:

Leaders in eco-friendly materials

Using our beneficiation process, we are able to manufacture the following product ranges to a consistent quality utilising a 100% recovered waste material:

Product
Description
More Information

Alpha Cement Constituent

A classified, low residual carbon high specification pozzolanic product for cementitious applications.

Spec sheets available on request.

Delta Cement Constituent

A classified, low residual carbon pozzolanic product for use in applications such as concrete block, precast concrete and roof tile manufacture.

Spec sheets available on request.

Coke - coal without volatiles (fuel grade)

A coke product with high net heat to sulphur ratio suitable for reburning.

More information on products will be available soon.

Magnetite - MagTron™

A magnetic product for use as a dense media and as a magnetic filler.

More information on products will be available soon.

Cenospheres - CenTron™

A range of clean, classified cenosphere products (hollow alumino-silicate microspheres) for use in a wide range of applications including lightweight fillers and cements.

More information on products will be available soon.

Applications
Innovative eco materials